Chief of Investigation [redacted]

[redacted] New York, New York, [redacted] advised he was aware of several incidents in which MORRIS LEVY was possibly involved one of which is set out below;

b6
b7C

On March 9, 1983, [redacted] and [redacted] interviewed [redacted] at her retail store [redacted] Miami, Florida, [redacted] or [redacted] was the Manager of [redacted], formerly of [redacted] Hialeah, Florida. The interview was prompted by allegations from a local flea market vendor that counterfeit product found at his stand was purchased from [redacted] previously operated by [redacted]

b6

The counterfeit cassettes in question were produced by one [redacted] dba [redacted] Carlstadt, New Jersey.

Ms. [redacted] denied distributing these cassettes and further advised that [redacted] is no longer in business. Ms. [redacted] indicated that [redacted] was destroyed by fire on [redacted] and that she was currently in litigation with insurance carrier over the effective coverage of her claim. [redacted] was having problems collecting for several reasons. At the time of the fire her insurance policy was only under a binder and had increased the coverage under the new policy.

b7C

Ms. [redacted] further advised the fire insurance company was claiming that the fire was of a suspicious nature.

b6
b7C

Ms. [redacted] also stated that her father was an old friend of MORRIS LEVY. LEVY had supposedly helped her father out of financial difficulties and whenever LEVY was involved he always got a part of the action.

For the information of Miami, New York's current knowledge of [] is limited to information obtained from a review of Fort Lauderdale PDs 1980 investigative report regarding the murder of NATHAN MC CALLA. However, New York's investigation re captioned subject and MORRIS LEVY has yielded peripheral information which gives some indication of the nature of the relationship between [] and MC CALLA. The following facts are known:

1. MC CALLA was a long time associate of numerous New York LCN figures, including ex-boss THOMAS EBOLI and other GENOVESE Family members.

3. While residing in Florida, MC CALLA "brought in" three pilots to the Sunny South Aircraft Service, Fort Lauderdale, Florida: [redacted] white, male. [redacted] white, male, [redacted], and [redacted] white, male, [redacted] identifies [redacted] as pilots heavily involved in narcotics trafficking. MC CALLA himself made flights to the Caribbean and other locations, some with [redacted] and others with at least one of the above individuals.

4. In June, 1980, the Ft. Lauderdale Police Department received information from an anonymous caller that [redacted] and [redacted] were involved in the murder of MC CALLA. There investigation identified [redacted] white, male, [redacted] Ohio. [redacted] has remained unidentified. At this same time (June, 1980) it was determined that [redacted] white, male, [redacted] had rented the residence in which MC CALLA had been murdered and had completely and thoroughly searched the property inside and out, to the extent of hiring a third party to search the grounds with a metal detector. Both [redacted] are known to the Cleveland Division and [redacted] is characterized as a known hit man and GENOVESE Family soldier. [redacted] is a close associate of the Cleveland LCN family, a narcotics dealer and suspected murderer.

5. It has been determined that the Cleveland family "reports to" the GENOVESE Family of which captioned subject, VINCENT GIGANTE, is the under boss.

In view of the above a strong possibility exists that if [redacted] is involved in narcotics, his operation is connected to the GENOVESE LCN Family and may even be controlled by it. The New York office Joint Organized Crime Task Force (JOCTF) agrees with the Miami Division that [redacted] is a significant target and an investigation of his narcotics activities would be warranted considering the likelihood of his Organized Crime connections.

Re New York airtel to Newark, 1/25/84.

Referenced airtel requested both background information pertinent to BURNS PONTIAC, Route 70, Marlton, NJ, as well as a review of the articles of incorporation of same.

On 2/15/84, SC [REDACTED] advised that due to difficulties encountered in negotiations between the FBI and the OFFICE OF THE NEW JERSEY SECRETARY OF STATE, corporate record reviews have been temporarily suspended.

Det./Sgt. [REDACTED] EVESHAM TOWNSHIP, NJPD, which has jurisdictional responsibility for Marlton, NJ, advised that BURNS PONTIAC is operated on a day-to-day basis by [REDACTED] who, in the opinion of the EVESHAM TOWNSHIP PD, is free of criminal involvement. BURNS PONTIAC has, however, employed various organized crime affiliates as salesmen. These include, among others, [REDACTED]. Both [REDACTED] have had peripheral connections to both the BRUNO and GAMBINO LCN families. Neither has a known connection to the GENOVESE LCN family.

Source believes that [redacted] release will create many sit downs and a consolidation of various gambling operations. Source stated [redacted] illegal gambling is one such operation that will be brought back under [redacted] control. Source further believes that [redacted] [redacted] will play a large role in [redacted] operations.

Source advised that GIGANTE boasts that his illegal gambling operation is one of the five largest in the country today, encompassing Manhattan, Brooklyn, Staten Island and New Jersey. Source stated that the GENOVESE FAMILY is taking more control over gambling operations in order to extort more money from them. Source believes they are doing this to dampen their temptations to invest in drug deals, because of potential FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI) investigations.
